To whom it may concern:

I have known Buddy Boyd and his partner Barb for many years as passionate and knowledgeable advocates for responsible stewardship of our land. They have been leaders in recycling management issues and are well respected for their commitment to this issue which is so important to sustainable communities.

I strongly urge that any authority with jurisdiction over recycling take the time to hear their views and learn from their experiences.

Buddy and Barb can articulate some of the more complex issues in recycling in a way that is clear and to the point. They believe strongly in community education, and find supporters wherever they go.

If you are contemplating regulatory changes or policy initiatives regarding recycling, both on the micro- and macro scale, they are an invaluable resource.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Simons, MLA
